

Sto GraniTex®

Textured wall surface finish

Facades

Interiors

Sto GraniTex® is a lightweight, durable wall finish with the stylish look and feel of natural stone providing long-term performance and low maintenance with a variety of natural textures to create a classically elegant facade.

Sto GraniTex® is an acrylic-based interior and exterior wall finish, that can be used in new construction or renovation. It is spray-applied and designed to provide the texture and appearance of natural stone, but in a versatile lightweight finish coating that may be used in several Sto engineered wall systems.

Substance and Style

Sto GraniTex delivers incredible design flexibility that conventional finishes simply cannot rival. With a variety of natural textures and 18 available color options, Sto GraniTex offers designers countless options to achieve the look of stone at a fraction of the cost. Plus, it is as durable as it is attractive, UV resistant and engineered for long term performance and low maintenance. The sturdy and versatile finish is ideal for new construction or restoration projects where continuation of stone is needed. Sto GraniTex is compatible with Sto Panel Technology®, StoPowerwall®, StoQuik® Silver, StoTherm® ci and StoVentec® Render.
